

Women's Homelessness Prevention Project

Keeping women and children safely housed through integrated legal support

Across 10 years, the Women's Homelessness Prevention Project has:

helped

1,405

women and children to safely avoid homelessness

83%

had experienced family violence directly prevented the eviction of 1,019

women and children

achieved cost savings to the government and wider community of

$11.4M

87%

achieved a success rate of in sustaining tenancies

Of the women we helped:

94%

had no income or were reliant on Centrelink

77%

experienced mental health issues

10%

identified as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander

Our social worker made

1,986

targeted referrals to support services.